PARIS, May 6.—The final drive of the war—from September 28 to November 11—last year, cost the little Belgium army 1,012 officers and 29,056 men in killed and wounded, according to statistics which have just been received from Brussels. Of this total 285 officers and 3,055 men were killed.

The relatively low proportion of killed to wounded is explained by the fact that most of the fighting was done with the rifle and machine guns, which, throughout the war

Only 474 American Fighters Won Croix de Guerre, Govt. Informs

Only 474 persons "while in the military or naval service of the United States have been awarded the French croix de guerre and are authorized to wear that decoration or a ribbon thereof," an order issued yesterday by the War Department said.

The list of persons who may wear the French decoration includes 139 officers and 275 men.

"DRUNK? NO, JUST NERVOUS," HE SAYS

"I'm not drunk, judge; I'm just nervous."

This was the defense of John B. Gleason, 819 Tenth street northeast, when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Maraden, of Catonsville, Md., on the charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

Testimony was that he, with a man who gave the name of C. S. Robson, had stopped at the home of Justice Stapleton at Relay and insisted that he was "Wolfe 192-M," a telephone number in East Baltimore. Stapleton says he advised him to "turn around and drive back to Washington before he was picked up."

Stapleton then got in his own automobile and followed the other car to Catonsville, where it smashed into the automobile of Henry Stelling, of Elkridge. Stapleton testified that Gleason had traveled three miles from Relay to Catonsville "like a snake crawl."

"Gasoline and nervousness don't go well together," said Justice Maraden, as he sentenced Gleason from $101.75.

2 PROBERS OPPOSE FRYATT VERDICT

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—A copy-right cable dispatch to the Public Ledger says:

"The Hague, May 5.—A Berlin telegram says that Eduard Bernstein and Dr. Bohenleiden, of the committee of inquiry into accusations on the vital point of international law relating to the treatment of prisoners of war in Germany, have sent a declaration to the Vorparlament in which they differ from the judgments of the committee in regard to the sentence and execution of Captain Fryatt.

"They say that from general personal consideration we declare ourselves in a disagreement with the committee's judgment and that the action against Captain Fryatt and his condemnation is an act of serious violation of international law. We wish expressly to state that the committee has examined this case very carefully and conscientiously and we have arrived at the conviction that the doing of Fryatt to death was judicial murder."

ALL DUBLIN HONORS U. S.-IRISH ENVOYS

DUBLIN, May 6.—The lord mayor decided today to call a special meeting Saturday at which prominent citizens and officials will meet the Irish-American delegation to the peace conference, consisting of Frank P. Walsh, Edward P. Dunne, and Michael Ryan. On Thursday the delegation will go to Limerick to receive the freedom of the city.

The delegates, visiting Belfast yesterday, were met at the station by thousands of persons, headed by a band. They attended a reception in the city hall and later had luncheon with the lord mayor, Sir Peter O'Connor, and other prominent men. Ryan, in a brief speech, said that more than half the population of Philadelphia consists of North Irish Presbyterians.

Benjamin Franklin said: "A rolling stone gathers no moss." A careless spender gets no W. S. S.

A. E. F. HOMESICK, SAYS "Y" WOMAN

NEW YORK, May 6.—The dough-boys had to go 3,000 miles from home to win but the girls didn't. Without moving a step they have scored the biggest American victory of all. It is the overwhelming vote of the A. E. F. according to Miss Mildred Ballou, of New York, that American girls excel all others.

"They're the goods!" say the Yanks. Miss Ballou, moreover, on the basis of several months' experience as a Y. M. C. worker in the big leave area at Montone, in the Riviera, avers that the longing of overseas husbands and prospective ones for a quick return is expressed in terms of these same girls and women at home. And of the two, the married man is worse. The biggest homesick army in the world's history has talked about the "girls it left behind" until this "Y" girl has come to the only decision possible:

"There are some mighty wonderful wives and girls at home, I can say."

Longing Perverts.
And that longing for the girls they left in America pervades everything for these guests at the "Y's" Montone. Leave Area. It is with them on their pleasure trips very different from the hikes in heavy marching order—over roads that Caesar planned, and along the winding donkey trails of the country. It is with them on their expeditions up the mountain sides.

And when they came back to the white palace of the "Y" at Montone, it is with them as they chat with the girls who are there to make the place and its pleasures as homelike as possible.

"The 'Y' girl," Miss Ballou says, "is a receiver for all vices, complaints, desires, and even blame. We listen and listen."

And these men, thinking of the women back home, come to believe they see in the "Y" girls some resemblance to those they are thinking of. Says Miss Ballou:

"I have looked like wife, sister, sweetheart, and mother. All that is left is mother-in-law or grandmother."

"Our Boys, God Bless Them."
"On Sunday afternoons," Miss Ballou writes, "we have open house. Girls serve chocolate and pass out cigarettes. There is an orchestra in our canteen and the room is crowded. Then we have a huge theater, and movies, too, free to all in the A. E. F. We have billiard rooms, too."

"Our amusements are varied—to-night a boxing contest with Montone versus Monte Carlo; last night, a social evening, and night before, our nights are crowded. During the day the men are in the hills, on tram rides, or donkey rides."

And the "Y" girls hear the true stories of the war—the personal stories.

"I have heard so much of the war," Miss Ballou says. "How these boys have suffered! Will our people at home realize all they have been through? I just sit and listen to tale after tale. I can't do enough for all they have gone through. I have listened to tales of girls at home who forgot—of the sad home where mother died—of the pal who was killed at his side. I have laughed and I have been sad. Our boys—God bless them!"

BERGER'S GETTING CONGRESS SALARY

Congressional sentiment which opposes seating Congressman-elect Victor Berger, Socialist, of Wisconsin, now in a Federal prison for violation of the espionage law, was intensified yesterday by the discovery that his monthly salary of $425 is being paid to him by the sergeant-at-arms of the House. Mr. Berger already has been paid $1,250 out of the salary fund for the House, and will continue to receive that stipend until Congressional action is taken to prevent it.

The sergeant-at-arms asserts that he has no option under the law to pay Mr. Berger his salary. The statutes are mandatory that after a man is elected he shall receive his salary monthly, beginning March 1. The second installment has just been paid.

Undoubtedly as soon as Congress convenes action will be taken against seating Mr. Berger. Shortly after the election Congressman Gallett, slated for Speaker, announced that he would offer a resolution to unseat the Wisconsin Socialist.

PROMINENT PEOPLE TO BE AT JANE DELANO SERVICES

Memorial services for Miss Jane A. Delano, director general of the department of nursing of the American Red Cross, who died three weeks ago at Savanah, France, will be conducted in D. A. R. Hall tomorrow.

Many prominent persons will be present and speeches will be made by Franklin K. Lane, Bishop Alfred Harding, Surgeon General William C. Braisted, Brig. Gen. Francis A. Winter, Surg. Gen. Rupert Blue, Miss Mabel T. Boardman, and Miss Clara D. Noyes.

SET BAIL FOR MEN CHARGED WITH TAKING GOVT. GOODS

BALTIMORE, May 6.—Paul H. Smith, a former soldier at Camp Meade, and William Collins, a civilian, who gave his residence as Washington, were given a hearing by United States Commissioner Supple on the charge of stealing Government property at the Ben Franklin cantonment, and held in $1,000 bail each for the action of the Federal court.

Capt. Thomas P. Perkins, signal supply superintendent at the cantonment, was the chief witness against the men.

The men had been arrested while attempting, it is alleged, to sell Government-owned knives at a store on Market place. Captain Perkins declared that he could hardly believe that Smith was guilty.
